

RESULTS

TEACHERS		STUDENTS
Qualitative indicators	Quantitative indicators	Qualitative indicators	Quantitative indicators	Products
Raised awareness of many forms and contents of media messages	Integrated media literacy across the curriculum.	Raised awareness of many forms and contents of media messages.	Developed research skills.	Video material: - presentation of schools - presentation of countries and cities - presentation of Christmas traditions - presentation of national cuisine - presentation of cultural heritage through media literacy aspect - video about reliable and unreliable sources - documentaries of each mobility, presentations of activities during mobilities
Raised confidence in using formative assessment on the regular basis	Integrated formative assessment in teaching.	Raised awareness of the importance of appreciating cultural identity through preserving national and shared European cultural heritage.	Developed ICT skills (video communication, creating project material results).	e-Guidebook about media literacy with tool for teachers
Raised awareness of the importance of appreciating cultural identity through preserving national and shared European cultural heritage	Exchange of good practice between partner schools.	Improved critical thinking skills and creative problem solving to become reasonable users and information producers.	Improved international team work skills online and phisically.	Project website
Inhanced formative assessment as a value to improve teaching.		Enhanced creative approach to learning.	Improved language skills.	eTwinning platform
Raised self-confidence.	Improved language skills	Raised self-confidence.		- newspaper articles - interviews - memes - photo gallery - photo collage
	Improved international team work skills online and phisically.	Gained more confidence in public speaking in a foreign language		- project bee-hive boards - a hotel for wild pollinators - project snowflakes - origami hearts - cream - candles - Christmas ornaments - Christmas cards - printed hand-made booklets - a model of a wooden barge
	Developed ICT skills (video communication, creating project material results).	Enhanced formative assessment as a value to improve learning		national food

				Educational material: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Kahoots- an album about flora and fauna in Floodplain forest- tools for media literacy- lesson plans according to formative assessment- lesson plans for media literacy- posters- written examples and photo material for the exhibition of good practice- material for different workshops for students on the three main topics of the project
--	--	--	--	--